

Car Accident Checklist

Safety First!

1. Remain calm and safely bring the car to a stop. Turn on hazard lights and make sure you and the vehicle are out of danger of being the victim of a second accident.
2. Assist the injured. Call 911 if any injury is suspected. Better safe than sorry.
3. Gather pertinent information at the scene:

Car information of the other parties:

Vehicle #1

Year: _____

Make: _____

Model: _____

License Plate Number & State: _____

Vehicle #2

Year: _____

Make: _____

Model: _____

License Plate Number & State: _____

Driver /Owner Information:

Vehicle #1

Name: _____

Address: _____

Phone number: _____

E-Mail: _____

Drivers Date of Birth: _____

Driver License Number & State Issued: _____

Vehicle #2

Name: _____

Address: _____

Phone number: _____

E-Mail: _____

Drivers Date of Birth: _____

Driver License Number & State Issued: _____

Witnesses:

Names: _____

Address: _____

Phone Numbers: _____

E-mail: _____

Names: _____

Address: _____

Phone Numbers: _____

E-mail: _____

Attending Officer:

Circle: Police Highway Patrol Sherriff Other

County or City: _____

Name: _____

Badge Number: _____

Traffic Report Number: _____

Contact Number or Business Card: _____

4. Take photos of Accident with your cell phone or camera. Make sure you get all angles of every vehicle involved as well as intersections, street/highway signs, and any other pertinent information.
5. As soon as you can write down every detail of the accident. Time, weather conditions, visibility, road conditions, traffic lights, street signs, speed of vehicles and the sequence of events. If you did not take pictures, try to draw a sketch with as much detail as possible.

6. Contact Peebles Law Firm, 336-723-7361!

DO NOT:

1. Talk about who is at fault.
2. Admit fault or apologize.
3. Talk about the accident in the presence of other persons.

*No one may force you to give details of the accident or admit blame and you have the right to see Peebles Law Firm before making any statements. If the accident is serious, please call us immediately.